MAYOR'S GOOD NEIGHBOR AWARD

Crescent Hill is filled with wonderful neighbors...and Mayor Jerry Abramson is inviting you to nominate your favorite for the Mayor's Good Neighbor Award. There will be 12 award winners this year, one from each city ward. The Good Neighbor Award Guidelines are as follows:

1. Your neighbor must be a resident of the city of Louisville.
2. The neighbor you nominate can be as young as 10 years old.
3. The individual must have been your neighbor for a year or more.
4. Good neighbors are considerate of others. They do not infringe on others' rights. This includes no registered complaints of noise such as barking dogs, excessive motor revving, noisy parties.
5. Good neighbors keep their property in good shape, for example, keeping the lawn up.
6. A good neighbor comes to the aid of a neighbor or neighborhood by going above and beyond the call of duty in special situations. This can include the following:
 - ✓ taking a neighbor to the doctor
 - ✓ checking on a neighbor if something doesn't seem right
 - ✓ starting a stalled car
 - ✓ grocery shopping
 - ✓ raking leaves
 - ✓ cutting grass

Applications are available by calling CityCall at 625-3333. The application deadline is August 15, so don't delay.

Plant Bandit Strikes!

To the frustration of the Grinstead Median Gardening Angels, someone has been helping him/herself to the liriopse which is planted in the tail of the median. This has occurred four times over the last five weeks. The loss of these plants is hindering completion of the median. Also, the Frankfort Avenue Gardening Angels have reported ornamental grass missing from several locations. These two projects are for the beauty and pleasure of the entire Community. Please, if you see suspicious activity at either of these sites, get a license number and/or description and call the First District Police Department at 588-3536. Police reports have been filed. Please help stop whoever is robbing the entire Community!

Louisville Academy of Music Offers Classes for Children!

Beginning the second week in September, the Louisville Academy of Music, 2740 Frankfort Avenue, will offer classes in KINDERMUSIK. This curriculum is divided into KINDERMUSIK BEGINNINGS and KINDERMUSIK FOR THE YOUNG CHILD.

KINDERMUSIK BEGINNINGS is a program tailored to the needs of the very young child. Presented in four fifteen-week semesters, this program provides a rich musical experience for children ages 18 months through 3 1/2 years of age. The weekly thirty-minute classes are designed for groups of six to twelve children, each with an accompanying adult. These lessons serve to stimulate the child's musical development through movement, singing, and playing basic instruments. Parents will become familiar with ways to encourage these activities outside of class.

KINDERMUSIK FOR THE YOUNG CHILD is appropriate for children ages 4 to 6. It is a four-semester curriculum. Each semester is fifteen weeks. The weekly sixty to seventy-five minute lessons are designed for groups of six to twelve children without accompanying adults. Whether moving, vocalizing, or playing an instrument, the focus is on a process, not on performance.

All classes will be taught by Patty Bailey. Ms. Bailey has earned bachelor and master degrees from the University of Louisville School of Music, and is an experienced KINDERMUSIK teacher.

KINDERMUSIK is a superior preparation for later instrumental study. To reserve a place for either program, call the school's director, Robert French, at 893-7885.
